

I pay for XM Radio and I do not listen to brocast stations that force me to listen to advertisements that I do not wish to hear. I urge the FCC to allow Americans to make their own choice when it comes to deciding how we want to receive our information. This is after all, a FREE country.